

Fruit for the Future

16 July 2009 13.30 – 17.00

PROGRAMME

Scottish Crop Research Institute, Invergowrie, Dundee, DD2 5DA

Registration:	Seminar tent in front of main reception building – coffee available on arrival –
13:45 – 13.55	Introduction
13.55 – 14.20	Five a day in Scotland ... healthy and sustainable? - Professor Annie Anderson, Centre for Public Nutrition Research, Dundee University
14:20 – 14.40	Soft fruit: a Nutritional Nirvana? – Dr Derek Stewart, SCRI
14:40 – 15:00	Availability of Biopesticides for use in UK-based soft fruit growing - Roma L Gwynn
15.00 Field Tours:	Starting outside front of marquee
	Nikki Jennings – raspberry breeding and new selections
	Julie Graham – understanding fruit quality in raspberry
	Rex Brennan – marker-assisted breeding of blackcurrants
	Nick Birch – food webs and biocontrol of raspberry aphids

For more information about Fruit Research at SCRI please visit www.fruitgateway.co.uk

For information about SCRI, please visit www.scri.ac.uk